

This year my character is Dog. He is black and white and weighs about 20 kg with anoutlook on life.

Dog was born on October 13th at Aunt Dolly's holiday home for cats. Her holiday home is in Tauranga!! Because he grew up with cats he developed a cat's personality. He was afraid of other dogs as well as sheep. He was a very confused farm dog.

Oh and Dog loves Jess, which is Cooch Windgrass's dog from next door. The first time he saw Jess their eyes met across a crowded pigpen. Dog was stealing scraps from Cooch's sows. But then one of the sows spotted him. The sow charged, sinking her sharp teeth into his leg. Jess was shocked and ran home. They both were traumatised and have been afraid of pigs ever must agree since. The next day he saw her again and it was not a very good time. He was riding in Pongo's baby pram between a teddy bear and a daisy doll wearing a pink bonnet and drinking raspberry drop cordial from a bottle with a teat. Embarrassing!!!

But Dog has some competition for Jess's affection.

Wal's pig dog, Major, thinks he's a big wheel just because he's rough, tough and mean. Although he is strong, he is also courageous. Major thinks he's better than all of the animals on the farm. Jess likes him too because he seems brainy.

Jess also likes Aunt Dolly's corgi, Prince Harry. He is pampered and does not have to work on the farm. He wallows in luxury all the time and is handsome and smart. Dog also loves Wal. His owner Wal is Dog's favourite person in the WHOLE WIDE WORLD!!!!

Dog loves Wal and Wal loves Dog they're a team and you must agree ... man and dog in harmony.

Dog

My name is Brooke Pratt. I am 11 years old.

I like netball, rugby, swimming, tennis, dancing and everything else.

The first play I was involved in was Grease. I was a Ballroom dancer and one of Pink Ladies in the Milk Bar. Ever since I have joined in all 7 of the school's productions.

After Grease I was one of the village people in the 'Maori myths and legends'. And mummy bear in 'The three little wolves'. And a swany swan in 'The Lorax'. And did ballet in 'Apiti's got talent'. And for our production last year, Bad jelly the witch, I was Dingle mouse. He is quite similar to Dog in Footrot Flats. I chose Dog and Dingle mouse because they are both funny, happy and cheerful and fun to act. Dog is Wallace's best mate; although sometimes Dog gets a bit excited when it's time to go on the farm and grabs Wal's legs and slobbers on on them. Wallace needs dogs help on the farm to get the mob in the holding pen to shift the mob..... the list goes on. Man and Dog in harmony.
